1. What you need to do

Police reporting

- Before lodging a claim for injury resulting from a motor vehicle accident, the accident must be reported to a police officer. When completing this claim form you will require the following details: the name of the police officer who attended the accident scene (or to whom the accident was reported), the police station where the police officer was stationed and the police accident report reference number.

Complete this form/where to send it

- Use this form if you personally suffered an injury in a motor vehicle accident which was wholly or partly the fault of some other person.
- Use this form on behalf of an injured person who is unable to personally complete the information. (All of the answers to questions contained in the form must relate to the injured person).
- To make a claim as a relative/dependant, for loss resulting from a person sustaining a fatal injury, use the Notice of Accident Claim Form (Fatal Injury) (not this form).
- Send the completed form to the CTP insurer of the motor vehicle at fault. To obtain the name and address of that insurer, contact the MAIC Enquiry Line on 1300 302 568 or visit www.maic.qld.gov.au. When calling, please have the details of the accident, including the registration number of the motor vehicle/s responsible for causing the accident. This information will assist the search.
- If the motor vehicle at fault is uninsured (unregistered) or unidentified, send the completed form to the Nominal Defendant, GPO Box 2203, Brisbane Qld 4001. Unless indicated otherwise, the term insurer, when used in CTP claims, includes the Nominal Defendant.

Time limits

- Lodge this form with the relevant CTP insurer as soon as possible. Your claim could be rejected if the CTP insurer receives it more than nine (9) months after the date of accident or the first appearance of symptoms of the injury.
- If an unidentified motor vehicle is involved in the accident, this form must be lodged with the Nominal Defendant within three (3) months of the date of accident, unless there is a reasonable excuse for the delay. In any circumstance, your claim must be lodged with the Nominal Defendant within nine (9) months of the date of the accident or it will be barred.
- If you retain legal representation, this claim form must be given to the CTP insurer against whom the claim is to be made within one (1) month of the first consultation. This does not extend any of the time limits referred to above.
- Late lodgement: If notice is not given within the time fixed by the Motor Accident Insurance Act 1994, your excuse must be given in the Additional information/excuse for delay section at the back of this form or by separate statutory declaration.

What happens then

- The CTP insurer is required to contact you within fourteen (14) days of receiving your claim form with a decision on whether or not your claim form is a satisfactory notice and whether or not the CTP insurer is prepared to meet your reasonable and appropriate rehabilitation expenses.
- You must be prepared to help the CTP insurer with its consideration of your claim. You may be required to give specific information, photographs, documents or records and you may have to have a medical examination or assessment.
- You must also take all reasonable steps to recover from your injury by having reasonable and appropriate treatment and rehabilitation, and to reduce your lost income – for example, by seeking alternative work. Contact the CTP insurer or your legal representative to discuss reasonable and appropriate rehabilitation options.
- If your claim can be finalised, you can discuss this with the CTP insurer and agree on the payment to you. If you are unsure of your legal rights, a lawyer can advise you.
